Dear Harry:

I am deeply touched by the kind things you say about my administration of the Central Intelligence Agency in the past eight years and for what you have said about me. I want you to know how much I appreciate it.

I read your article in the MINNEAPOLIS MORNING TRIBUNE of 14 September 1961 on the Conference at Oxford, sponsored by the Council on World Tensions. It is a most informative piece.

Every kind wish.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
